Time is short to contact Governor Jerry Brown! He has 12 days from when he receives a bill to either sign or veto it. The majority of bills for animals has passed, thanks to the many animal advocates in our legislature.

Stay tuned for PawPAC's endorsement list—coming soon—for the November 6 election.

Mean time, please call or write to Governor Brown for as many of these bills as you can. Please share this email/post/tweet to your friends, to double the effort. Thank you for making time to act on these, along with everything that you are doing already for animals.
